SFC Circular - Investor identification regime to take effect on 20 March 2023

The Securities and Futures Commission (SFC) reminds the investing public that the Hong Kong investor identification regime (HKIDR) will commence on 20 March 2023. Investors who have not yet responded to their intermediaries' requests for consent to transferring their client identification information should do so promptly.

Under the HKIDR and Hong Kong's data privacy laws, including the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance, intermediaries need to obtain individual clients' express consent to submitting their identification information to the SFC and the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (SEHK). The information is encrypted in the data repository and accessible only to authorised personnel of the SFC and SEHK. Intermediaries have generally requested clients to provide this consent and update their identification information.

After the launch of HKIDR, individual investors who have not provided this consent will only be able to sell their securities holdings on SEHK but not buy additional securities.

"The launch of the investor identification regime is in line with international practices," said Ms Julia Leung, the SFC's Chief Executive Officer. "Regulators will have real-time information about investor identity for securities orders. This will no doubt strengthen our market surveillance capability, uphold market integrity and bolster investor confidence."

Details of the HKIDR requirements can be found in the "Information for investors" section of the SFC's dedicated HKIDR webpage.

在香港投資者識別碼制度實施後,如個人投資者未有提供所需同意,便只可在聯交所出售他們現時持有的證券,而不得買入證券。

證監會行政總裁梁鳳儀女士表示:"推出投資者識別碼制度符合國際做法。各監管機構 將能夠實時掌握證券買賣指令的投資者身分信息。毫無疑問,這將大大增強我們的市 場監察能力,促進市場廉潔穩健,並提升投資者信心。"

有關香港投資者識別碼制度要求的詳情,可參閱證監會為該制度而設的專題網頁內 〈投資者資訊〉一欄。
